

Right On Time

O.A.R.

This is my version, sounds good on acoustic rather than playing the power chords.

Fool around with the D chord however you feel..it all sounds good.

D(let it ring) A

I know it s been a long, long year.

G G

God forbid you to listen to me now.

D A G

I may have laid the pressure on good, but since that day

D A G G

I ll never ask again.

D A

It s funny, it s come right down to this.

G G

I have to steal my time cause you won t give it up for free.

D A G G

I ve been talking to the Moon all night, but the Stars won t say nothing to me.

D A

And though I feel it s easy for a man to grow up

G

Much harder for a man to grow out.

D A G

You may not appear, but I m standing here My God.

G

I ll never ask you.

D A G

Where have you been?

You could have told me just.

D A G

Where have you been?

Cause if you know me you know.

D A G

I won t ask why.

They always told me you d be

D A G

right on my time.

DAG

We re coming around.
