Verse 1

D Em
Right about the time the streetlight came on F#m Bm A
parked on the lawn threw away the keys
D Em F#m
1987 fender s busted, engine rusted
Bm A
Tires down on their knees
D Em
Getting stared down by a blank wall
F#m Bm A
Another nightfall falling down around me
G F#7
Lately it s all the same old story

Chorus

D Em
Gotta get away so sick of standing still
G A
Leaving here to stay gonna find another thrill
D Em
To blow me away, trade in a memory
G D Em F#m Bm A
For everything that you ll never be

Verse 2

D Em
Everybody s hot in California
F#m Bm A
I gotta warn ya you re never gonna want to leave
D Em
Cause all the stars got a scar to show you
F#m Bm A
After a drink or two, tucked up their sleeve
D Em
Everybody s not what everybody says
F#m Bm A
Get into my bed and outta my dreams
G F#7
Lately it s all the same old story

Chorus

D Em
Gotta get away so sick of standing still
G A
Leaving here to stay gonna find another thrill
D Em
To blow me away, trade in a memory
G
For everything that

Bridge

Bm Em
You ll never be the enemy,
G F#7
It never meant that much to me
Em Bm
Here is now and then is how
C#7 F#7
The first and last have come to pass
G F#7
Lately, it s the same old story
G F#7
Lately, it s the same old story
