All of my sins just burn away

Left longing for returning days

Saw spiders reaching for my bed
Em Am
Left home never returned again

C Am Em
I plant my feet
C Am Em
I left the ground
C Am Em
I sought the wind too
C Am B
I fought the sound

Em C G Am
All my all my all my own
Em C G Am
Could have grasped a vacant moan
Em C G Am
Then the hush of violence
Em C G Am
Crushed the pride of naked wind
Em C G Am
Dance the dance of broken veins
Em C G Am
By the hands of all attained

Em C G Am

Left before you from the start

(same chords as the first verse)

I trust these words won t save my fall
Won t bother her from last night s ball
We barely spoke and now we re dead
Left maybe from this world instead

I plant my feet
I sought the wind too
I fought this out

Am B C B (the little riff between the verse and the bridge)

Em G
Rip out the leather of her nice corvette

Am
Leave it on the shoulder faced away from the street

Em G
Bother all the fathers make sure they re asleep

Am
Bleed all the spiders taste their bones for a week

Em G
And if that corpse decided to weep

Chop it up in thirds and let her face recede

Sip from the liver that kept her wet

Am
Wrap it up in folded sheets somewhere she slept

Bother all the fathers make sure they re asleep

Bleed all the spiders taste their bones for a week

All my all my all my own
Could have grasped a vacant moan
Then the hush of violence
Crushed the pride of naked wind
Dance the dance of broken veins
By the hands of all attained
Left before you all the same
Broken from the start
