

The You I Created
Of Montreal

Okay so this song doesn't have a guitar part originally but here are the chords.

C

It's hard to know exactly

Am

when my dreams got weird

F

Em

C

I tense up and get antsy when you're near

C

But nightly you appear to me

Am

ghostly in my head

F

Em

C

but I never can remember what you said

F

It must be something reassuring

C

something sweet and kind

G

C

something you would never say in real life

F

Where does it go in the morning

C

It slipped out of my hand

G

Eating breakfast with my other thoughts

C

away from wakeful lands

F

Where is the you I created

C

the you that I adore?

G

C

When my eyes are open I don't see you anymore

C

It's hard for me to fathom

Am

that you disappeared

F

Em

C

and turned into exactly what I feared

C

But every night you sing to me

Am

when my eyes are closed

F

Em

C

But I never can remember how it goes

F

It must be something undeserving

C

only in my mind

G

C

Something you would never sing on your time

F

It disappears without warning

C

It shifts like grains of sand

G

Galavanting with some other dreams

C

I didn't understand

F

Where is the you I created

C

the you that I adore?

G

C

When my eyes are open I don't see you anymore

C

But nightly you appear to me

Am

ghostly in my head

F

Em

C

but I never can remember what you said

F C G C (x4)

End on C
