FROSTBITE

Oh Land
Fauna (2008)

It's one of Oh Land's greatest songs, a masterpiece of music. It was quite hard for me to find the right chords, there are definitely some missing or wrong. Feel free to correct mistakes! :)

Verse: Ebm F# C# B

Chorus: Ebm C# F# B Bb G#m F#

I m bored of quality
I m tired of keeping disciplined
I m sweltering
The heat is too much for me
Producing this shit
Is pure vanity

I got a frostbite in my frontal lobe
I got no empathy
No sensitivity
Please won't you unwrap me from this cotton wool -
I won't be bullet proof
When you just smile

You re bored of quality
You re tired of
Keeping disciplined
I'm not sweltering (I'm sweltering)
The heat is perfect for me (too much for me)
Making this song is not vanity (is vanity)

You got a frostbite in your frontal lobe
But I've got too much empathy
So much sensitivity
Please, please, wrap me in some cotton wool -
I m not bullet proof
When you just smile
