Bm A Em
Words are too far from my lips

A
I found you:

D
A tiny thing between the sheets

A breathing bliss
So much expression
In such an empty air
I found you
But now you re not even here!

How could I be so empty headed?
How could I let the windows stay unlocked?

I found you:
A little thing between the sheets
A breathing bliss
So much expression
In such an empty air
You found me
But then you disappeared!
