

White Nights

Oh Land

This one sounds much as the other version, but I think the other one is following the bass or something, and I couldn't make it sound good with guitar. So here is my version :D

C            Am            C            Am
Ooooooh    ooooooh    Ooooooh    oooohhh

C
Has it been a day or a week?

Am
As my eyes begin to close

I am walking in my sleep

C
Living in a state inbetween

Am
Do the signs begin to show

See the eyes fare in the dark

C
As they Gloooooow

Am
As they Gloooooow

C            Em
These dreams under my pillow

Am            F
In the twilight of these white nights

C            Em
these dreams under my pillow

Am            F
In the twilight of these white nights

C    Em            Am            F
Of these white nights(x3)

C            Am            C            Am
Ooooooh    ooooooh    Ooooooh    oooohhh

C
Something is about to be born

Am
There s a restlessness in me

Keeps me up until the dawn

There is no silence

Am

I will keep following the sirens

There is no silence
