

Pretty Face
Oh Susanna

Artist: Oh Susanna
Song: Pretty Face

From the CD Short Stories, 2007
Written by Suzie Ungerleider
Produced by Suzie Ungerleider, Cam Giroux, and Bazil Donovan www.ohsusannamusic.com

Submitted January 21, 2012
By EdAbbey

Capo 2nd Fret
Pluck the bass note and strum the rest.

Intro Em C G G D C G G

Em C G
I love your pretty face
D C G
It just brings me back to our younger days
Em C G
When the world seemed full of grace
Am C G
You wore your Sunday suit and I wore lace
D C G G

Em C G
We drove down to Mexico
D C G
It was the furthest place we could go
Em C G
Fifty bucks and a band of gold
Am C G
Where we got the guts I ll never know

Chorus

D C G
The kids are grown up now And moved away
D C
But I can t feel alone now
Am C C
I ve got your pretty face Your pretty face

Em C G
Call me a fool, I guess

D C G
But know that this is a fool who loves you best

Em C G
The good, the bad, and all the rest

Am C G
Each day I see your face I know I m blessed

Chorus

D C G
Some friends that we know now Have passed away

D C
But I can t feel alone now

Am C C
I ve got your pretty face Pretty face

Em C G
Call me a fool, I guess

D C G
But know that this is a fool who loves you best

Em C G
The good, the bad, and all the rest

Am C G
Each day I see your face I know I m blessed

D C G
Each day I see your face I know I m blessed

D C G

End