Dm I ve walked these dusty roads for seven days and seven nights E

Dm The only guidance that I keep s the monochrome moonlight E

F Although the stars above me whisper songs to comfort me

G I m still a solitary girl seeking company

Dm Way back, a haystack and the zodiac, three minds in empathy E

Dm A rucksack, the train track and a paperback s all I need to comfort me E

F I pass through pint-sized places that Ill never see again

G I m still a solitary girl seeking out a friend

Slickback, wisecrack, I can smell a rat
Ransacked, setback, down another cul-de-sac
Bullwhack, maniac, sitting on the train track
Crookback, lumberjack, think I better backtrack
