G	A	D	A
Miss Antoinette she went out with a song
G	A	D	A
Selling booze and silver shoes and singing right along.
G	A	D	A
Shotgun and a limousine while the baby dolls march on
G	A	D	A
Miss Antoinette she went out with a song.

G	A	D	A
And it s a long way down
G	A	D	A
Yeah it s a long way down.

G	A	D	A
Down at the Maple Leaf they pack em in
G	A	D	A
We all get sauced, turn down the house, so we start all over again.
G	A	D	A
And tonight we ll all get reborn to a couple fifths of gin.

(here we go)

G A D A

G A D A
The rich boys get their money back when the banks go belly up

G A D A
But if you re downtown when the levees break well you re shit out of luck.

(shit out of luck)

G A D A
And over at the place they train the guards

G A D A
With Stanton on the drums you don t need no one on guitar

G A D A
And sometimes all it takes is going way too far

G A D A
And it s the long way down

E F# B A
Yeah it s the long way down

G A D D
Aw it s the long way down

A
A long way down

G A D A
And all the rich boys get their money back when the banks go belly up

G A D A
But if you re downtown when the levees break well you re shit out of luck.

G A D A
The penthouse paupers need your help so everybody lend a hand

G A D A
And maybe they ll get you a real sweet price on Louisiana land

G A D A

G A D A

G A D D

A A

G A D A
Now Christ down on the street with his trombone

G A D A
And even though the 12-year olds have got in their bones

G A D A
Above these 20 blocks no one s alone
