Your great-grandfather was a great lawyer

A B E

A B E
Your father shot stills and then directed films

A B E
That your mom did publicity for

B A
I saw your older sis on the year s best book list

A B E
What a bitch, they didn t give you much else

B

A B E
I heard cuts by The Kinks on your speakers

A B E
I saw Poe and Artaud on your shelves

A B E
While The Last Laugh s first scene on your flat panel screen

A B E
Lit Chanel that you ve wrapped around yourself

B A
You ve got outsider art by an artist you arguably

kidnapped to pin on the wall

Your designers have slyly directed the eye
E B
down pink lines here and your well lit pawn

You shot some reversal film in Angkor Wat
A B E
And this book you once read said there s less people dead at this point
A B E
now than those who are not

B A
And this film we once saw was reviled for it s flaws
E B
But it s flaws were what made us have fun
B A
And the life some folks had might have made us feel bad
E B
Why feel bad? Man, it s nothing you ve done

E
It s all in your hand
It s all in your hand
A B E
Like a gun, like a glove, like a grand

B

Solo over verse progression

B A
And this thing you once said disappeared from my head
E B
In the time that it took to be amazed
B A
And this thing you once did might have dazzled the kids
E B
But the kids once grown up are gonna walk away
A B E
And your world is gonna change nothing

A B E
And your world is gonna change nothing

A B E
And our world is gonna change nothing

A B E
And our world is gonna change nothing

A B E
And our world is gonna change nothing
