When you stole the soldier s car

Ivory towers and lover s flowers
D A Bm
But no one thought you were a fool

[Chorus]

F#m Bm G
You never stopped to notice all
F#m Bm G
The stolen clothes stacked in the hall
F#m Bm A D
From the others who scaled the wall just to
A Bm D
Find themselves fun off the road

D G D Bm D F#m Bm G

[Verse 3]

D G D A
When you showed up at the farm

Visions of the summer flying past you
D G D Bm
The foxes had torn up the mother and her pups

And the well was full of flies

[Verse 4]

D G D A
When you walked down to the pond
D G Bm A
Searching for the lover guiding you

D G D Bm

It had been filled in with rusty nails and then

No one thought you were a fool

F#m Bm G

Even though everyone knew

F#m Bm A D

What you wrote was the same, just a different name

A Bm D

Of those who escaped before you.
