

Lough Ernes Shore
Old Blind Dogs

[Verse]

Dm G
One morning as I went a-fowling
F G Am
Bright Phoebus adorning the plain
Dm G
It was down by the shores of Lough Erne
F G Dm
I met with a beautiful dame

[Verse]

G
Her voice was so sweet and so pleasing
F G Am
These beautiful notes she did sing
Dm G
The innocent fowl of the forest
F G Dm C G
Their loving to her they did bring

[Verse]

Dm G
It being the first time I met her
F G Am
My heart it did leap with surprise
Dm G
I thought that she could be no mortal
F G Dm
But an angel that fell from the skies

[Verse]

G
Her hair it hung down in gold tresses
F G Am
Her skin was as white as the snow
Dm G
Her cheeks were as red as the roses
F G Dm C G
That will bloom along Lough Erne s shore

[Verse]

Dm G
When I heard that my love was eloping
F G Am
These words unto her I did say
Dm G
Oh, take me to your habitation
