

Star O The Bar
Old Blind Dogs

[Intro]

C F C G
C F C F C F C

[Verse]

Oh, I ll sing you a stave, if you ll gies your attention
C G F G
It s no song of pity, it s no tale of woe
Em7 C
And no word of honour or love will I mention
F G C
But I ll sing of a lassie I kent long ago

[Chorus]

F C F C
No better than most, and no worse as many
G
And what drew me to her s no easy to say
C F C F
She was coarse, she was heartless, and she wasnae that bonnie
C G C
She was the star o the bar in her day

[Verse]

F
I ve stravaiged the Royal Mile with her, drinking in style with her
C G F G
And Rose Street, from end to end, often surveyed
Em7 C
Fought and swore in the pubs with her, rolled in the dubs with her
F G C
Cadged many s a sub from her, never repaid

[Chorus]

F C F C
No better than most, and no worse as many
G
And what drew me to her s no easy to say
C F C F
She was coarse, she was heartless, and she wasnae that bonnie
C G C
She was the star o the bar in her day

[Verse]

F
All you chaps with young lassies, believe me, love soon passes

C G F G
And all your bright dreams are but straws in the wind

Em7 C
Better one who'll sit down with you, sing a fine tune with you
F G C
Pass the glass round with you, drink herself blind

[Chorus]

F C F C
No better than most, and no worse as many
G
And what drew me to her's no easy to say
C F C F
She was coarse, she was heartless, and she wasnae that bonnie
C G C
She was the star o' the bar in her day

[Chorus]

F C F C
No better than most, and no worse as many
G
And what drew me to her's no easy to say
C F C F
She was coarse, she was heartless, and she wasnae that bonnie
C G C
But she was the star o' the bar in her day

[Outro]
