                    C#/F#
you should not write
                    F#
there just the same
                    Ebm
Both falling bright
                    C#/F#
you know its a snow
                    F#
im not feeling cold
                    C#
im not feeling cold
[F# F# C# C#]
F#   G#7sus4
Now as you walk down the street
                    C#/F#
with fire in heart
                    F#
fighting at the dark
                    Ebm
the darkness is spread
                    C#/F#
and i see its dead
                    F#
but somehow its gone
            C#
somehow its gone
[F# F# C# C#]
F#   G#7sus4
Faces in cold winter rain
          C#/F#

```
dieing ashamed
                      F#
you know its not right
              Ebm
its all air tight
                   C#/F#
and now that its gone
              F#
its coming undone
                C#
its coming undone
[F# F# C# C#]
F#                              G#7sus4
now with this contest you planned
            C#/F#
me in the sand
                   F#
and you with that man
                Ebm
taking your hand
                C#/F#
i saw her tonight
                  F#
shes sleeping alright
                  C#/F#
shes sleeping alright
              Ebm
and fading away
                C#/F#
end of her days
                        F#
her head filled with pain
                     C#/F#
and thoughts of her land
                   Ebm
and arms of her man
                 C#/F#
Twis moving hands
                 F#
weighing her down
                 C#/F#
trying not to drown
              Ebm
trying to stay
                 C#/F#
reaching for land
                 F#
burning this bliss
                   C#/F#
her herd in my hands
                  Ebm
and losing my mind
                      C#/F#
```

```
while im kissing my wife
                  F# its all just the same
