Ain t it Enough

Show me a river I ll show you an ocean show you a castle turn into sand for we rise and we fall and we crash on the coastline only our love will last till the end fortune is fleeting your time is deceiving our bodies are weak and they turn into dust though following blindly but love is like lightning strikes only one time, but ain't it enough

Chorus:

Ain't it enough to live by the ways of the world to be part of the picture, whatever it's worth throw your arms round each other and love one another it's only one life that we got, and ain't it enough surely all people were made for each other so let the prison walls crumble and borders all tumble there's place for us all here and ain't it enough

Chorus

Bridge:

Late in the evening, feeling the wind blow tall(?) through the treetops, warm in the sun lying beside you, watching the moon rise that's all there is babe, and ain't it enough?

Show me a river I'll show you an ocean stars just like diamonds shining above where the heavens are beaming and all the world's dreaming peace everlasting and ain't it enough.
