

Levi
Old Crow Medicine Show

Levi
Old Crow Medicine Show

This may not be perfect, but it s a start. Feel free to comment with any corrections.

Intro: G. D. C. Am. (walk down C to Am throughout song)

G. D. C. Am
Born up on the Blue Ridge at the Carolina line
G. D. C
Baptized on the banks of the New River
G. D. C. Am
Brought up on the bluegrass, and clear moon shine
G. D. C
Tough as iron, but a heart as soft as leather

G. C. Am. D. G
Levi, lord, lord, lord the shot him down
C-Am. D. G
10,000 miles from a southern town
C-Am. D. G
Oh Levi

G. D. C. Am
Like fire on a mountain, running wild in those days
G. D. C
Playing knights of the golden horse shoe and Indian raids
G. D. C.
Am

Now it s parachutes and combat boots and camouflaged airplanes
G. D. C
And a country boy who don t belong in the desert anyway

G. C. Am. D. G
Levi, lord, lord, lord the shot him down
C-Am. D. G
10,000 miles from a southern town
C-Am. D. G
Oh Levi

Bm
Well the sand box sure gets lonesome
Em
Ands 109 degrees
Bm

Singing carry me back to Virginia

C

Lord I m down here on my knees

G.

D.

C.

Am

In a market square where the bells were ringing loud to fill the air

G.

D.

C

Levi gazed his eyes out to the rocket glare

G.

D.

C.

Am

Beyond the desert and the ocean, to the farthest fields of home

G.

D.

C

And when the bullets pierced his body he was already gone

G. C.

Am.

D.

G

Levi, lord, lord, lord the shot him down

C-Am.

D.

G

10,000 miles from a southern town

C-Am. D. G

Oh Levi