

Mississippi Saturday Night
Old Crow Medicine Show

Capo on the 2nd fret
Standard Tuning

Intro Chords: Just jam out on that G chord

(Verse 1)

G

Old Mr. Deville, from up in Clarksdale, shot his brother with a pop pop pop

C

G

spent twenty years of hard time, before he saw the light

D

C

G

now he s preaching on the corner of a Mississippi Saturday night.

G

Drive by the pawn shop bail bond motel, dream all you want you ain t going nowhere

C

G

the ladies at the juke joint, are looking for a fight

D

C

G

and they ll hunt you like a rabbit on a Mississippi Saturday night.

(Chorus)

C

Vicksburg, Natchez, down to Crescent City

G

the Gulf Coast blues oh it sure is a pity

D

don t make a lot of money, baby thats alright

G

cause we make a lot of loving on a Mississippi Saturday night.

(Verse 2)

G

Old Mr. Simon from Hushpuckena, he s having coffee with your maw maw and your paw paw

C

G

if you re messing with his daughter you better treat her right or he ll tree you like a possum on a Mississippi Saturday night.

D

C

G

(Chorus)

C

Vicksburg, Natchez, down to Crescent City

G

the Gulf Coast blues oh it sure is a pity

D

don t make a lot of money, baby thats alright

G

cause we make a lot of loving on a Mississippi Saturday night.

(Verse 3)

G

Drive to the ballpark, out by the Wal-Mart, parked on the levee drinking forties in a Skylark

C

people on the river are hoping for a bite

G

D

C

G

whole mess of catfish cooking on a Mississippi Saturday night.

G

Old Mr. Hayward, sings like a jaybird, more like a jailbird inside a FEMA trailer

C

D

your gonna need a pirogue, the waters getting high

D

C

G

or you ll be sleeping in the river on a Mississippi Saturday night.

(Chorus)

C

Vicksburg, Natchez, down to Crescent City

G

the Gulf Coast blues oh it sure is a pity

D

don t make a lot of money, baby thats alright

G

cause we make a lot of loving on a Mississippi Saturday night.

C

Vicksburg, Natchez, down to Crescent City

G

the Gulf Coast blues oh it sure is a pity

D

don t make a lot of money, baby thats alright

G

cause we make a lot of loving on a Mississippi Saturday night.

This was my first time adding a song enjoy.

Jonathan