

I Blame Hollywood
Olly Murs

INTRO     F     G     Bb

F                          G                                  Bb
Frankly my dear, I don't give a damn
    F
I wish that's how I felt
    G                                  Bb
I just can't hide the fool that I am
    G
As I let you walk away into the sunset

It's just another fame
    Bb
I try to do the right thing
I ended up with nothing good
    F     G     C
I blame Hollywood

Bb    F    C
I tried to be strong, to be brave, to behave like a hero (hero)
I tried to be tough, to be cool, to be smooth like De Niro (De Niro)
    Bb
But it hurts without you
And I look like a fool
Bb    G    Bb
And I don't have a clue what to say when love breaks down
    F     G     C
Cause this ain't Tinseltown

same for the rest of verses

I made a mistake
I got confused
It's easy to forget
Cause this is real life
With so much to lose
As I let you walk away into the sunset
It's just another fame
I try to do the right thing
I ended up with nothing good

Mm, girl
And I blame Hollywood

I tried to be strong, to be brave, to behave like a hero (hero)

I tried to be tough, to be cool, to be smooth like De Niro (De Niro)
But it hurts without you
And I look like a fool
And I don't have a clue what to say when love breaks down
Cause this ain't Tinseltown
No oh oh
Tinseltown, oh
Tinseltown, no oh oh
Tinseltown

I fell for the lines
You knew that I would Hurray for Hollywood

I tried to be strong, to be brave, to behave like a hero (hero)
I tried to be tough, to be cool, to be smooth like De Niro (De Niro)
But it hurts without you
And I look like a fool
And I don't have a clue what to say when love breaks down
