

I Blame Hollywood
Olly Murs

INTRO      F#      G#      B

F#                      G#                      B
Frankly my dear, I don't give a damn
                                 F#
I wish that somehow I felt
                                 G#                      B
I just can't hide the fool that I am
                                 G#
As I let you walk away into the sunset

It's just another face
                                 B
I try to do the right thing
                                 G#
I ended up with nothing good
                                 F#      G#      C#
I blame Hollywood

B                                      F#                                      C#
I tried to be strong, to be brave, to behave like a hero (hero)
I tried to be tough, to be cool, to be smooth like De Niro (De Niro)
                                 B
But it hurts without you
                                 G#
And I look like a fool
B                                      G#                                      B
And I don't have a clue what to say when love breaks down
                                 F#      G#      C#
Cause this ain't Tinseltown

same for the rest of verses

I made a mistake
I got confused
It's easy to forget
Cause this is real life
With so much to lose
As I let you walk away into the sunset
It's just another face
I try to do the right thing
I ended up with nothing good

Mm, girl
And I blame Hollywood

I tried to be strong, to be brave, to behave like a hero (hero)

I tried to be tough, to be cool, to be smooth like De Niro (De Niro)
But it hurts without you
And I look like a fool
And I don't have a clue what to say when love breaks down
Cause this ain't Tinseltown
No oh oh
Tinseltown, oh
Tinseltown, no oh oh
Tinseltown

I fell for the lines
You knew that I would Hurray for Hollywood

I tried to be strong, to be brave, to behave like a hero (hero)
I tried to be tough, to be cool, to be smooth like De Niro (De Niro)
But it hurts without you
And I look like a fool
And I don't have a clue what to say when love breaks down

And I blame Hollywood
