

O

Omarion

I was listening to this sweet song and fooling around with my guitar and seemingly found a few chords that sound great imo arpeggiated with the song

Standard tuning:

C [x32010]

G [320033]

Am [x02210]

Fm [133211]

I selected to play it as so:

C	G	Am	Fm
e-----0-----3-----0-----1-----
B-----1-----3-3--3-----1-----1-1--1-----
D--2-----0-----2-----3-----
A--3-----2-----0-----3-----

Looped..

Basically what i do is variate the fingerpicking and the style, sometimes alter the and pick 2 strings at once to variate and make it sound better or at times play G instead of again still sounds good...

Let loose and it ll sound great :)

This might not be spot on but it i think it sounds nice to this song and is worth a try..

2nd tab ever so don t bother saying i suck, it s a fact, but if you like it let me know :)
