

Brother
One Hundred Dollars

One Hundred Dollars <http://onehundreddollarsnocents.com/>

Brother

tabbed by Dave

Intro: A

F#m E Bm F#m E Bm
I prefer you not tell her if you must then you may
F#m E Bm F#m E Bm
What she knows of kissing she won't see it our way
E F#m A Bm D F#m
But there's something romantic between every friend
E F#m A Bm D
You're some kind of lover but you're more like a brother in the end

Bm D F#m x3 Bm D A

F#m E Bm F#m E Bm
Your shoulders have broadened since I first knew your name
F#m E Bm F#m E Bm
Your hands they have roughened but they touch me the same
E F#m A Bm D F#m
And to still hold you tightly I must have some gall
E F#m A Bm D
You're some kind of lover but you're more like a brother after all

Bm D F#m x4

E F#m A F#m
When the sun comes up but the guilt don't rise
G
you'll be happy with what I've been saying
E F#m A F#m
When the tears you cry ain't been brought by me
G D Bm
I'll be better, be better, be better, to wipe them away

Bm D F#m x3 Bm D A

F#m E Bm F#m E Bm
 There s a winning in losing There s a loss to be cut
F#m E Bm F#m E Bm
 One day we ll break even you can not leave it to luck
E F#m A Bm D F#m
 So I speak to the darkness may the Gods give me might
 E F#m A Bm D
 You re some kind of lover but you re more like a bother that s alright

Bm D F#m Bm

the end