C#m

Can t I just turn back the clock?

A E

Forgive my sins

C#m

I just wanna roll my sleeves up

A E

And start again

C#m

I know that I messed it up

A E

Time and time again

C#m

I just wanna roll my sleeves up

A E

And start again

C#m

I was switchin up the lanes

A E

Steppin out the frame I m in

C#m

I was pulling on the reigns

A E

Sick off all the same happenin

C#m

I swear I was looking for disaster

A E

Mixed with a bottle of gin

C#m

And just because I come home after

A E

Doesn t mean you ll take me in

C#m

A E

But I can see clearer than ever from a distance now

C#m

Every day I do it, I been goin through it

A E

But you never knew it cause I never showed you

C#m

You gave me the world, so I feel I owed you

A E

I been lookin through the mirror and that s the old you

C#m

Imma get it right now, don t know how

A E

But I promise that we re gonna make it somehow
