VERSE:

```
      C          G          Am          G
There s a place where the moon is under the sea;

      C          G          Am          G
There s a place where the sun s inside a cup of tea

      Em          Am          Dm          G
      C G C G
There s a place you can go where no one else has been but me

      C          G          Am          G
There s a man on his throne who thinks the world s his own;

      C          G          Am          G
He would live he believes he will never be alone

      Em          Am          Dm          G
      C G
He would dine, he would wine, but no one else is there but him
```

CHORUS:

```
      C          G          Am
Welcome to the garden my friend

      G          F Ab          C          G
This is where your broken heart mends

      C          G          Am
Come into the garden my friend

      G          Dm          Ab
```

Don't be scared to hold my hand

C G C G C G

This is where your loneliness ends

VERSE:

C G Am G
There's a girl in the sky, she is laughing as she cries

C G Am G
She is one with the world and she never wants to die

Em Am Dm G
C G C G
There's a song she would sing that no one understands but her

C G Am G
There's a child who's awake everynight and everyday

C G Am G
Not a care in the world, not a fault on what he says

Em Am Dm G
C G
There's a game he would play, he wanted all of you to stay
