

Why Am I Like This
Orla Gartland

Tuning: Drop D

[Note]

Picking pattern is played in the verses, pre-chorus and outro.
In the chorus mainly play the bass notes on the low D string hit the A string in between.

When playing only chords mainly hit the lower strings for the best sound! :)
The strumming for the chorus should all be played muted, but as there s no way to represent a strum which is both muted and accented, the heavier strums have been left unmuted to show the contrast.
