

Quietly

Ornella De Santis

Quietly re mind me nothing is real
Not the sea, not the sky, not concrete or steel
It's all just a dream, we dream wide a wake
Trying to find our way back to grace

Quietly re mind me it will all fade a way
Disappear like the tears, like dark at day break
Everything that we change is gone in a breath
Only love stays in the places we've left

And I wanna stay here for ever
Wide a wake, in your dreams and in your heart
A wake, promise me you re member
So that time can never tear us apart
