intro: C#m [x46654/446654]

C#m.....G#m

yesterday s sorrow

.....F#m.....C#m

not forgetting tomorrow

stolen just like a baby

in a world full of maybe s

.....C#m.....G#m

for the thought of a dollar

and taught hate of a color

C#m.....G#m

born to days till we play the routine

of a game that s so old and obscene

C#m.....B.....C#m today all the troubles exceed

.....C#m...B*.....F#m as the media helps destroy dreams

with a duke and a reverend it seems

...B.....F#m.....C#m* we can t find the mean between extremes x then go

I pretend all the white boys took a flag to the black toy and they return to a wondrous day and they re thinkin in a different way they talk of the last man of a cheap and depressed man funny how it seems that some never even see what s been built and been taught to believe there s a thought that some races don t bleed or that pain is just something for me if you think that then brother, you ll see the blood was expensive and so it seems hey

is it thought that some races don t bleed
or that pain is just something for me the a duke and a reverend it seems
we can t find the mean between extremes
it s alright
