

Like A Radio
Over the Rhine

Dm C Dm

Confused

C

Ever since I spied you

Bb C

In the rooms of my mind

Bb

Now I can't deny you

Dm C

Bleeding and bruised

Bb C

Like a vagabond in rags

I've walked the streets to your door

Bb

To find just what's in store

I see you

You and many others

In your clean well-lighted place

Where I would find disgrace

But I do

Know I'd find contentment

Just to be your furniture

I need nothing more

Gm C

In the thick of the night

Dm Bb

Take me out of the cold

Gm C

Let me sing inside

Gm

Like a radio

In the thick of the night

Before we grow too old

Let me sing inside

Like a radio

Shivering and cold

This night's conducive

To a flight into my soul

But I stand here

Though my heart grows bold

Once on the inside

I can quietly persist

And hold my tears

chorus

And so still I wait
Though I grow much weaker
No, no, no, I will not faint
I ll stay true
Believe me when I say
I d climb to heaven,
Crawl beneath the lowest hell
To stay near you

chorus
