Intro (x2): G D Am C Am G C Em D

G D Em
Affection, the gifted architect
C D Em G C Em D
Is making a draft and beautiful design
G D Em
The options and possibilities
C D Em G C Em D
Are endless when we connect and re-align
G D Em
Collections of books and documents
C D Em G C Em D
Arise and parade around my cluttered desk
G D Em
Reworking the math and measurements
C D Em G C
Until I m convinced these plans are picturesque
Em D
Like mountains in the Midwest

Instrumental (x2): G D Am C Am G C Em D

G D Em
Reaction creates the columns dark
C D Em D C Em D
And wide like the roads around Fort Lauderdale
G D Em
The structures begin to take their shape
C D Em D C Em D
Before I ve designed the public monorail
G D Em
The turnpike and high-speed motorway
C D Em D C Em D
Connect and enclose the quaint suburban streets
G D Em

The airport, the broad suspension bridge
C D Em D C
The lake and the beach where several rivers meet
Em D
Compounded from the spreadsheet

G C Em
A city sparkles in the night
C
How can it glow so bright?
G Em C D
The neighborhoods surround the soft florescent light
G C Em
Designer skyline in my head
C
Abstract and still well-read
G Em C D
You went from numbered lines to buildings overhead

Ending (x2): G D Am C Am G C Em D (C)
