[Verse 1]

Bm A

June was the lobster shell

Bm

I dug by hand

G

A

A haven that hid me well beneath the sand

Bm A

The white windy waves washed in, but I stayed dry

Bm G D A

The great breakers broke again as I nodded off inside

[Chorus]

G

Bm

A

And then, when the Empress run aground

D/F#

G

And my eyes turned blue and green

Bm A

I heard a gorgeous sound

D

G

And that s when it became a dream

Bm A

When the sky fell in

D/F#

G

When the hurricanes came for me

Bm A

I could finally crash again

D

Bm

G

A - Bm

G

A

And that s how I became the sea

[Verse 2]

Bm A

I wrenched the engines off and drank them down
Bm G A
 The depths turned the iron soft as they swiftly drowned
Bm A
 And I brought the ocean side to its rusty knees
Bm G D A
 As I felt the even tide deep in my shallow dreams

[Chorus]

G Bm A
 And then, when the Empress run aground
D/F# G
 And my eyes turned blue and green
Bm A
 I heard a gorgeous sound
D G
 And that s when it became a dream
Bm A
 When the sky fell in
D/F# G
 When the hurricanes came for me
Bm A
 I could finally crash again
D
 And that s how I became the sea

[Instrumental]

[Chorus 2]

G
 (When the sky fell in)
Bm
 When the sky fell in
A
 (When the sky fell in)
D/F# G
 When the hurricanes came for me
Bm A
 I could finally crash again
D G
 And that s how I became the sea
Bm A
 (How I became the sea)
D/F# G
 That s how I became the sea

Bm A

(How I became the sea)

D G Bm A D/F# G Bm A D

That s how I became the sea
