[Intro]

Bm /// | A /// | Bm /// | G / | A /

[Verse 1]

Bm A
June was the lobster shell
Bm
I dug by hand
G A
A haven that hid me well beneath the sand
Bm A
The white windy waves washed in, but I stayed dry
Bm G D A
The great breakers broke again as I nodded off inside

[Chorus]

G Bm A
And then, when the Empress run aground
D/F# G
And my eyes turned blue and green
Bm A
I heard a gorgeous sound
D G
And that s when it became a dream
Bm A
When the sky fell in
D/F# G
When the hurricanes came for me
Bm A
I could finally crash again
D Bm G A - Bm G A
And that s how I became the sea

[Verse 2]

Bm A

I wrenched the engines off and drank them down
Bm G A
 The depths turned the iron soft as they swiftly drowned
Bm A
 And I brought the ocean side to its rusty knees
Bm G D A
 As I felt the even tide deep in my shallow dreams

[Chorus]

G Bm A
 And then, when the Empress run aground
D/F# G
 And my eyes turned blue and green
Bm A
 I heard a gorgeous sound
D G
 And that s when it became a dream
Bm A
 When the sky fell in
D/F# G
 When the hurricanes came for me
Bm A
 I could finally crash again
D
 And that s how I became the sea

[Chorus 2]

G
 (When the sky fell in)
Bm
 When the sky fell in
A
 (When the sky fell in)
D/F# G
 When the hurricanes came for me
Bm A
 I could finally crash again
D G
 And that s how I became the sea
