Tuning Standard E

Cadd9- x32030

C- x32010

C/Em - x32000

D/F#- 2x0232

Cadd9        C   C/Em

There s the snow

C    Cadd9    C   C/Em

Look out below

C        F

And bundle up

Am        F   G

Cause here it comes

Cadd9   C   C/Em

Run outside

C    Cadd9    C   C/Em

So starry eyed

C            Am            F

A snowball fight breaks out

D/F#                F

And winter has finally begun

G                    Am                F        C

I twirl through the driveway with angelic grace

Em                    Am                F        G

Till I slip on the sidewalk and fall on my face

Am                G                C        F

This peppermint winter is so sugar sweet

G                D

I don t need to taste to believe

F                G                C

What s December without Christmas Eve

Cadd9        C   C/Em

Hop in the sleigh

C            Cadd9   C   C/Em

And we ll glide away

C            F

Into the night

Am        F        G

And we ll sip on moonlight

Cadd9   C   C/Em

Runny nose

C    Cadd9   C   C/Em

My frosty toes

C                    Am            F            D/F#
Are getting cold but I feel alive
                         F
So I smile wide

G                                    Am                    F            C
The snowflakes start falling and I start to float
Em                                    Am                    F            G
Till my mean older brother stuffs snow down my coat
                         Am            G                    C            F
This peppermint winter is so sugar sweet
                                 G                    D
I don t need to taste to believe
                         F            G                                    C
What s December without Christmas Eve

Dm                    C            G
All this holiday cheer
                         F                                    C
Heaven knows where it goes
                         Am                                    G
But it returns every year
Dm                                    C                                    F                                    C
And though this winter does nothing but storm
                         F            C                                    F                                    G            Am F C
The joy in my heart is ablaze and it s keeping me warm
   Em Am F G
It s keeping me warm
   Am G C F G D F G C
It s keeping me warm

A                                    Bm                                    G                                    D
I rip off the wrapping and tear through the box
                         F#m                                    Bm G                                    A
Till I end up with 45 new pairs of socks
                         Bm                                    A                                    D                                    G
This peppermint winter is so sugar sweet
                                 A                                    E
I don t need to taste to believe
                         G                                    A                                    D
What s December without Christmas Eve
A Bm G D
F#m Bm G A
Bm A D G
A E
G A D
