Owsley - Sonny Boy
Transposed by Lisa, MnHansonFan@hanson.net

Am D
Take Sonny, he s a real go-getter
Am D
A regular man about town
Am D
He s got the world revolving around the music
G C
And keeping his ear to the ground

Am D
He falls asleep behind his dark sunglasses
Am D
And whispers the words with a smile
Am D
D I double G, I love ya, baby
G C
I ain t seen your face in awhile

A
She ain t keeping score, he don t owe her anything
C
But she ain t gonna sit around
D
Waiting for the phone to ring

Chorus:

G A D
Sonny Boy, don t take your toys away
C
Save them for a rainy day, yea, yea, yea
G A D
An IOU could break her heart in two
C
She thought you were the real McCoy, Sonny Boy

Am D

Am D
He s got his servant and his own dumbwaiter
Am D
To answer the phone when you call
Am D
Sorry, Sonny s underneath the weather

G C
Try him back later next fall

Am D
The boss called him out to California

Am D
Let Hollywood make you a star

Am D
Now he s on the Music Television

G C
And driving a Cadillac car

A
Funny how fame and money does what it can

C
To bring about change in the boy

D
The clothes don t make the man

Chorus:

G A D
Sonny Boy, don t take your toys away

C
Save them for a rainy day, yea, yea, yea

G A D
An IOU could break her heart in two

C
She thought you were the real McCoy, Sonny Boy

B D A
oooh oh oh

B Em D A
It s a game you just can t win Ooooh oh oh

B C
Though it never will be the same again

D
Fair-weather friend

G A D C, G A D C... Am D

Am D
I don t think we ve heard the last of Sonny

Am D
He can t get it off of his mind

Am D
He wants to laugh, but he don t think it s funny

G C
A conscience can turn on a dime

A
When he was a boy, they taught him the Golden Rule

C D
Take him for anything, but don t take him for a fool
