Flower of Sweet Strabane chords
Irish Traditional

Capo I

Bm A Bm

Bm A Bm
If I were King of Ireland s Isle and had all things at my will
A Bm
I d roam for recreation and I d seek for comfort still
A Bm
The comfort I would ask for, so that you may understand
A Bm
Is to win the heart of Martha, the Flower of Sweet Strabane

Bm A Bm
Her cheeks they are a ruby red, her hair a lovely brown
A Bm
And o er her milk white shoulders it carelessly hangs down
A Bm
She is the fairest creature and the pride of all her clan
A Bm
And my heart is captivated by the flower of Sweet Strabane

Bm A Bm
Well I ve been in the Phoenix Park and in Killarney fair
A Bm
The lovely glens of Antrim and the winding banks of Clare
A Bm
In all my earthly travels I never yet met one
A Bm
That could compare, I do declare, with the Flower of Sweet Strabane

Bm A Bm
But since I cannot gain her love, no joy there is for me
A Bm
And I must seek forgetfulness in lands across the sea
A Bm
Unless she cares to follow me, I swear by my right hand

A Bm
McKenna s face you ll ne er more see, my Flower of Sweet Strabane

Bm A Bm
So its farewell to sweet Derry Quay, New Mills and Waterside

A Bm
I ll sail out o er the ocean, whatever may betide

A Bm
I ll sail away from Derry Quay out by the Isle of Man

A Bm
And I ll bid farewell to Martha, the Flower of Sweet Strabane
