

Bernadine
Pagan Babies

There s only been one recording of that song which has horrible audio. It was a little difficult to decipher the chords but this is what I got :

F#maj7

You dominate, and promise me

C#maj7

Why won t you try to love me

You always knew

F#maj7

Lonely lovers hang from you

C#maj7

Why won t you cry me a river

F#maj7

She s gonna fall down on her knees forever

C#maj7

And know; I want you

F C#

You are the only perfect thing yeah

F C#

You are the one thing I dream

F C#

I just pray for release, Bernadine

Bb G

And I m falling into your eyes

Bb G

I ve got a gate into your eyes

C#

That s the way of forgiving baby

Bb

We re much too young to be living

I guess that s it. Listen to the song and you ll get an idea of what to play where. Just continue with this.

Or :

C#maj7 - Cmaj7

F#maj7 - Fmaj7

Bb - Am

F - E
C# - C

Sing me a lullaby,
Crash into a small screen
Don't leave me in here;
Dark catacomb

Inside the lovers buy me
Only one runs to bat
True love can be so cruel

You're the only one who can lead me into
This side is better
I just pray for release, Bernadine
And I'm falling into your eyes

Gone again into your eyes
That's the way of forgiving baby

We're much too young to be living
You are the only perfect thing yeah
You are the one thing I dream

I just pray for release, Bernadine
And I'm gone again into your eyes
I've got a gate into your eyes
That's the way of forgiving baby
We're much too young to be living
