HOMEWARD LOOKING ANGEL (Pam Tillis, Bob DiPiero)

G G F F G G F F

[intro]

G G F F G G F F
She saw the ragged edge of nowhere from a fast moving train
G G F F
Watched the scenery fly by with a fever in her brain
Em Em A7 A7
Seemed like a good time at the time, rolling down that track
Em Em A7 A7
Now the only thing she wants is a one-way ticket back

D Bm D Bm
SheUs a homeward looking angel and she s feeling mighty tired
D Bm G Bm
Her party dress is tattered but her vision is inspired
D Bm D Bm
And that girl looking back in the mirror, lord, made such a mess of things
D Bm G A
And she s leaving in the morning soon as she can find her wings
G G F F
Soon as she can find her wings, oh oh ohh-ohhh

G G F F
[instrumental; see tab at end for one riff]

She s so very hungry for a piece of Mama s pie
Served up on Grandma s china after church on Sunday night
Oh, now Papa s probably turning out the lights and heading up the stairs
And the wayward child he never talks about still turns up in his prayers

She s a homeward looking angel and she must be feeling mighty tired
Her party dress is tattered but her vision is inspired
And that girl looking back in the mirror, lord, made such a mess of things
And she s leaving in the morning soon as she can find her wings

C D G A A
Oh, yeah... [instrumental]

F F

There s a road ahead and a road behind

G A A

All roads lead to home this time

She s a homeward looking angel and she s feeling mighty tired
She went gunning for glory but her bullets all misfired
And that girl looking back in the mirror, lord, made such a mess of things
And she s leaving in the morning soon as she can find her wings
Soon as she can find her wings, oh oh ohh-ohhh
Homeward looking angel
[instrumental & ad lib vocals; repeat and fade on G G F F etc.]
