G Em Dsus2 Em
Allow me to exaggerate a memory or two

G Em Dsus2
Where summers lasted longer than, longer than we do

C Em Dsus2 Em
When nothing really mattered except for me to be with you

C Dsus2 G
But in time we all forgot and we all grew

C Em
Your melody sounds as sweet

Dsus2 Em
as the first time it was sung

C G Dsus2
With a little bit more character for show

C Em Dsus2 Em
And by the time you father s heard of all the wrong you ve done

C Dsus2 G Em G
Well i m putting out the lantern find your own way back home

G Em C G
If i ve forgotten how to sing before i sung this song

G Em Dsus2
I ll write it all across the wall, before my job is done

C Em Dsus2 Em
And i ll even have the courtesy of admitting i was wrong

C Dsus2 G
As the final words before im dead and gone

C Em
You ve never been so devine

Dsus2 Em
In accepting your defeat

C G Dsus2
And i ve never been more scared to be alone

C Em Dsus2
If love in not enough to put my enemies to sleep

C Dsus2 G Em G
then im putting out the lantern find your own way back home.

This is a short song. But i absolutely love it.
Thanks to Brendon. :)
