

Miss Jackson
Panic! At the Disco

hey there!

I heard this song today and I think I have a chord structure figured out.

Obviously

this won't sound like the song since there really isn't a guitar part that carries the song, but if you want to play an acoustic version, this should be a decent starting point

[Intro]

Dm Bb
Climbing out back the door, didn't leave a mark

A
No one knows it's you Miss Jackson

Dm
Found another victim

Bb A
But no one's ever gonna find Miss Jackson

[Interlude]

Dm C Dm C Dm C Bb A
(this is the main progression, when in doubt, use this)

[Verse]

Dm C
You put a sour little flavor in my mouth now

Dm C
You move in circles hoping no one's gonna find out

Dm
But we're so lucky,

C
Kiss the ring and let 'em bow down

Bb A
Looking for the time of your life

Dm C
A pretty picture but the scenery is so loud,

Dm C
A face like heaven catching lighting in your nightgown,

Dm C
But back away from the water, babe, you might drown-
Bb A
The party isn't over tonight

[Pre-Chorus]

Dm C
He-eyy
Bb C
Where will you be waking up tomorrow morning?
Dm C
He-eyy
Bb
Out the back door
A
Goddamn
But I love her anyway
Dm C Bb C
I love her anyway
Dm C
I love her anyway
Bb
Out the back door
A
Goddamn
But I love her anyway

[Chorus]

Miss Jackson
Miss Jackson

Miss Jackson
Are you nasty?

Let me say it one more time
(tragic in the fall out)
