

Northern Downpour
Panic! At the Disco

Tuning: Standard EADGBE

Capo: 5

[Verse 1]

C F C
If all our life is but a dream, fantastic posing greed.
F
Then we should feed our jewelry to the sea.
F Am C
For diamonds do appear to be.
C Am F
Just like broken glass to me.
C F
And then she said she cant believe.
C F
Genius only comes along in storms of fabled foreign tongues.
F Am C
Tripping eyes, and flooded lungs.
C Am F
Northern Downpour sends its love.

[Chorus 1]

Em F Am
Hey moon, please forget to fall down.
Em F C
Hey moon, donâ€™t you go down.
C F
Sugarcane in the easy morning.
Am F
Weather vanes my one and lonely.

[Verse 2]

C F C
The ink is running toward the page, itâ€™s chasing off the days.
F
Look back at both feet and that winding knee.
F Am C
I missed your skin when you were east.
C Am F
You clicked your heels and wished for me.
C F
Through playful lips made of yarn that fragile
C F
Capricorn unravelled words like moths upon old scarves.
F Am C Am F
I know the worldâ€™s a broken bone, but melt your headaches call it home.
