

Coming Up Easy
Paolo Nutini

[Intro]

G Em C Am

[Verse 1]

G Em
Sunday morning, got the hazy, hazy janes,

C G
I turn to you and inhale where you lay.

G
Took a wander through the garden,

Em
To await the long, long day,

C G
And then roll for a while on a violet flowerbed.

Am
Oh, you kiss my lips again and again and again,

D
And then again, again

[Chorus]

G Em
We would watch the sun coming up easy,

C Am
While the rain came tumbling down,

G Em
And it would wash our bodies so cleanly

C Am
That we would seem to rise up off of the cold, cold ground

G Am Bm
It's a shame the way it seems to go

Bm Em
But now my best friend, my partner in crime

C
I'm afraid it looks as though we're gonna have to go our separate

G
ways,

Bm
Oh, See, the thing is, I love you.

Em
I love you but you see, I resent you all the same.

C G
All my other friends say you're just slowing me down.

Am
Oh, but I should have known you'd turn to me and say,
D
Before you through too much of me away

[Verse 2]

G Em
Don't you remember watching the sun coming up easy,
C Am
While the rain came tumbling down,
G Em
And it would wash our bodies so cleanly
C Am
That we would seem to rise up off of the cold, cold ground

G Em
We would watch the sun coming up easy,
C Am
While the rain came tumbling down,
G Em
And it would wash our bodies so cleanly
C Am
That we would seem to rise up off of the cold, cold ground

[Outro]

G G/Em G
It was in love I was created and in love is how I hope I die.
Yeah it was in love I was created and in love is how I hope I die (repeated)

We watched the sun coming up easy (repeated)
