Coming Up Easy
Paolo Nutini
[Intro]
G Em C Am
[Verse 1]
                          Em
Sunday morning, got the hazy, hazy janes,
I turn to you and inhale where you lay.
Took a wander through the garden,
To await the long, long day,
And then roll for a while on a violet flowerbed.
Am
Oh, you kiss my lips again and again and again,
And then again, again
[Chorus]
                    G
We would watch the sun coming up easy,
While the rain came tumbling down,
And it would wash our bodies so cleanly
                                           Am
That we would seem to rise up off of the cold, cold ground
                                             Bm
It�s a shame the way it seems to go
Bm
But now my best friend, my partner in crime
I�m afraid it looks as though we�re gonna have to go our separate
 G
ways,
Oh, See, the thing is, I love you.

I love you but you see, I resent you all the same.

C All my other friends say you�re just slowing me down.

Am

Oh, but I should have known you  $\ddot{\epsilon}^{1}\!\!\!/\!\!\!d$  turn to me and say, D

Before you through too much of me away

[Verse 2]

G Em

Don t you remember watching the sun coming up easy,

C Am

While the rain came tumbling down,

G E

And it would wash our bodies so cleanly

C Am

That we would seem to rise up off of the cold, cold ground

G Em

We would watch the sun coming up easy,

Z Ar

While the rain came tumbling down,

G En

And it would wash our bodies so cleanly

C A

That we would seem to rise up off of the cold, cold ground

[Outro]

G G/Em G

It was in love I was created and in love is how I hope I die.

Yeah it was in love I was created and in love is how I hope I die (repeated)

We watched the sun coming up easy (repeated)
