

Northern Skies
Paolo Nutini

Easier key for us girls to sing in.

Am

I have returned to the northern skies

Am

where the summer had not touched

Am

The clouds that pass above

Dm

Oh, and i have returned to the sombre grace

G

F

G

Of the days too early to come and too early to stay

D

And I have left a million stars

G

And an ocean so lightly, so clearly blue

D

And i have left the warmth of the sun

G

F

G

And a million adventures not yet begun

C

B Am

The great sense of passing through

Am

The great sense of passing through

Dm

Gsus2

C B

Am

The great sense of passing through

Am

Oh, for once there was beauty here for me

D

Under these white northern skies

Dm

And i felt the green was blacker

Dm

And the blue was darker still

G

My roots are lying deeper than i ever think they will again

D

G

F

G

G

Heartache and poesy, under these northern skies
