Tricks of the trade - Paolo Nutini

Tabbed by: Youriboss

I m sorry if this tab is a little messy, but it s my first one ever. I just figured it by ear, but i think it s quite good. Also, I don t really know the names of the chords, if someone could tell me them in a comment, I can add them to the tab. So for now, I can guess.

(Don t know the names of these notes either, think of the piano)

Tuning: Low D - Low A - D - Fsharp - A - High D

D (000000)
F#m (444000)
G (555000)
A (777000)
E (022100)

Intro: D, F#m, G, A

(D)

Was it love or recognition that has

(F#m)

healed this man s condition

(G)

I m hoping and I m wishing that

(A)

this bird won t fly away

(D)

We can see life hand in hand,

(F#m)

the green, the blue, the rough, the sand

(G)

And in our time and in our land

(A)

we ll savor everyday

Chorus:

(E)

(D)

And oh, how our glory may fade,

(F#m) (G)

at least we ve learned

(G) (A)
some things along the way

(D)
You took me from my bubble
(F#m)
knowing my defense was weak
(G)
And you sat there and you listened
(A)
any time I chose to speak
(D)
you gathered from my pleas to (F#m)
you that I am but a clown
(G) (A)
And I fear only a hero can defeat
these demons now

Chorus:

(E) (D)
And oh, how our glory may fade,
(F#m) (G)
at least we ve learned some
(A)
tricks of trade

(D) (F#m) (G) (A)

(E) (F#m)
And as time shall inevitably move on,
(G)
oh well, at least we ll have four strong (A)
legs to stand on (D)
To keep us alive...
