

days are endless, never finished
(sing you to sleep, sing you to sleep)

G D A
want the past, but you can't have it
G D A
silent blessing, finally resting

G
they all try to search for you
D A
but there's nowhere to send them to
G D A
the family room is filled with empty space
G
the television starts to sing
D A
but it doesn't say anything
G D A
and no one's saying anything at all

(Sing you to...)

G D A
dreams are hatching, no one's watching
G D A
days are endless, never finished
(sing you to sleep, sing you to sleep)
G D A
want the past, but you can't have it
G D A
silent blessing, finally resting
