Peter is smart
                              D
He knows each European country by heart
                          Am
He likes to sit under an apple tree in his yard
                      C
And wait for an apple to fall
          G
When Peter is nine

Someone needed to put an end to it all

(SAME CHORDS THROUGHOUT)

Peter is young
He tries to talk but nobody listens to him
Everybody s busy living and dying
Not knowing what s going on
But look at the little boy who

Chorus:
Went out into the world to save our planet
And he ain t coming back until she s saved

He s going off to see the king and parliament
But they just shook their heads and walked away
Singing
Da da dum...
Da da dum...
Well I m going out into the world to save our planet
And I ain t coming back until she s saved
I m following the footsteps our young Peter made
And everybody is welcome to join
Sing with me
Da da dum...
Da da dum...
