

Late To Say
Park Bench Society

[Intro]

G G Em C D
G G Em C D

[Verse 1]

G
And there s a strange place, wound up enough dear,
And though the last stuff, you know we re still here,
Em C D
You know we re still here...

G
The harsh loud sound of shutter glass
Em
This place has come to love and come to pass out
C D
will disappear

G
Popularity, fluctuates, so when you think you got a friend
Em
yeah it was much too late to say,
C D
don t let me down.

G
And these people, will not wait,
so if you ve got something to say don t hesitate,
Em C
cause you ll, you ll let yourself down,
D
wouldn t wanna let yourself down...

[Riff]

G G Em C D
G G Em C D

[Chorus]

G
And when your friends are grown up and you ve grown apart,
Em
and remember causing trouble in the school car park,
C
and after dark try to leave your mark,
C D

why can t we go back to the start

[Verse 2]

G

When they were just young and we were just bored,

Em

inside the bedroom window kicking out noise,

C

and promise the authorities, to make amends,

D

change his attitude, change his circle of friends.

[Chorus]

G

But he wakes up one day when he s on his own,

Em

he realized that all he loved was on loan,

C

And everything he got, he got to borrow,

D

this could all be gone tomorrow.

[Riff]

G G Em C D

G G Em C D

[Bridge]

Em

You miss home but this home is you,

C

cause your best mates, got better things to do,

Em

C

then sit around, wait up for you (wait up for you)

Em

You miss home but this home is you,

C

cause these so called friends, got better things to do,

Em

C

then sit around, wait up for you (wait up for you)

[Outro]

Em

But is it too late to say,

C

is it too late to say,

Em

is it too late to say,

C

Em

too late to say...
