Verse 2:

Just a domestic, don't get in the way.
Not our business, it'll be OK.
Can't believe he would do such a thing,
You wouldn't think it to look at him.
Pushed too far, couldn't take any more.
But it never happens in the superstore.
It always happens in the family home,
Behind closed doors, when they're alone.

Verse 3

Such a nice man, or so he seemed.
Don't see the violence behind the scenes.
Can't deal with his hurt, can't let go.
Can't take the knock to his ego.
They try to say he just lost control,
A moment of madness all it takes to kill.

That's just a lie but it's easy to swallow.
Face the facts, it'll happen tomorrow.
