Dm

You never know the words you should ve said

N.C.

Until they re all you re left with

N.C.

Until the dirt is falling and the guilt, it burns your bones

N.C.

And we ask the biggest question

N.C.

Why the fuck did this all happen?

N.C.

Who on Earth deserves this and what the hell do we do now?

N.C.

So we live like we have lost

N.C.

And we love like we are broken

N.C.

And as the colour leaves the sky, we re left in reverence of the frailty of it
