VERSE 4:

      C                                G
One day I asked what would they say
      G                                C
if I told them I think I am gay
      F                                C
They said hey it s okay, if you re happy that way
      G                                C
you re our friend and that s all that should matter
      F                                C
They said hey it s okay, we don t mind that you re gay
      G                                C
you re our friend and that s all that should matter
