You re gonna need somebody s arms to crawl into

What you re saying is true
You ain t no fool you ain t no liar
You re never gonna get yourself burnt
If you don t start no fires

But with no fire there is no light
With no light you ll never see
All the colors in the world
And all the love that s inside me

Oh when the winds they blow
You re gonna need somebody to know you
You re gonna need somebody s love to fall into
Oh when the leaves they fall
You re gonna need somebody to call you
You re gonna need somebody s arms to crawl into, oh to crawl into

(Am C G F)
(Dm Am G)

Oh when the winds they blow
You re gonna need somebody to know you
You re gonna need somebody s love to fall into
Oh when the leaves they fall
You re gonna need somebody to call you
You re gonna need somebody s arms to crawl into, oh to crawl into
